

Stephen A. Lucchesi, AIA
Principal-in-CHarge
Worship, Education & Community Studio
Ziegler Cooper

Stephen Lucchesi serves as Principal-in-Charge of the Worship, Education & Community Studio. He has more than 27 years of experience in design, construction documentation and construction administration. His clientele includes religious institutions, educational establishments and civic and municipal enterprises.

Stephen is a graduate of Texas A&M with a bachelor's degree in environmental design and member of several industry-affiliated associations, including the National American Institute of Architects (AIA) Houston Chapter. He has served as co-chair of the Associates Liaison Committee of the Houston Chapter AIA and as a member of the Texas Society of Architects Young Professionals Outreach Committee. He is a member of the Board of Directors and Chairman of the Buildings Committee at the Heritage Society at Sam Houston Park. Steve and his family are active members of St. Angela Merici Catholic Church, Missouri City, Texas.

He has served as co-chair of the Associates Liaison Committee of the Houston Chapter AIA and as a member of the Texas Society of Architects Young Professionals Outreach Committee. He is a member of the Board of Directors and Chairman of the Buildings Committee at the Heritage Society at Sam Houston Park.

Steve and his family are active members of St. Angela Merici Catholic Church, Missouri City, Texas.